Memorandum for the Record

SUBJECT: Report by [] on a Meeting of the Council of the Institute on 30 June 1951

1. At a meeting of the Institute Council Saturday, 30 June 1951, on the motion of Aldan and Kunta it was voted to create the post of permanent chairman. Yakovlev as chairman cast the deciding vote in favor of the resolution. Yakovlev and Aldan named a committee to work out regulations for the conduct of the chairman. Aldan took the position that the chairman should regulate the work of the Director. Yakovlev charged that this would make him a political commissar over the Director, and insisted that the chairman should be a man of the highest scholarly standing who would concern himself with scientific work and leave the administrative details to the Director, although the chairman would have the right to call the council to consider urgent matters. Aldan finally agreed to this position. Kunta then nominated Aldan as chairman, but he was opposed by Yakovlev on the ground that someone with more scholarly qualifications was needed. No chairman was elected.

2. The council next proceeded, against Kunta's opposition, to elect six new members. Fifteen candidates were proposed. Kunta opposed a secret ballot, and the election was by open voting, with the following persons elected:

- a) Sprogge - nominated by Yakovlev - former prominent Soviet hydrologist who served as assistant chief of Dneprostroi and in the Gosplan; of German ancestry and now a German citizen; has a good salaried job with a large German electrical company.
- b) Rzhnevsky - nominated by Budanov - enjoys the confidence of the NTS and is possibly an NTS member; writes for Possev.
- c) Davletshin - nominated by Phillipov - Tatar intellectual; was Professor of Economics; now works in the Institute as a research worker.
- d) Zorgenfrei - nominated by Shteppa - former Professor of Literature at Leningrad University.
- e) Miller - nominated by Phillipov; Cossack intellectual; former professor at Rostov.
- f) Kanatbey - nominated by Kunta - leader of Turkestani organization "Turkeli".

Other nominees were: Khakhutov, Georgian professor; Popliuko, Ukrainian intellectual; Ossipov, NTS ideologist; Mikhailovsky, Constitutional Monarchist journalist; Madame Zorgenfrei; Professor Stepun, member of the Kerensky Government; Professor Dudin; Professor Vasilaki, Ukrainian intellectual.
